

GROUP HANDOUT 4.2A

Difficult-to-Hear Messages: PRISON

---

1. If you think I'm going to be dumb enough to leave you the keys to my house, you're even stupider than I thought.
2. What good is all this programming doing you? You still can't get along with anyone.
3. Just because you're locked up doesn't mean you have to waste your life rotting in front of the tube, you know.
4. If you don't like the chow, you don't have to eat it.
5. Did it ever occur to you that you blame everything on someone or something else?
6. It's in the books and we've told you clearly: volunteers and inmates are to have no contact whatsoever outside this workshop.
7. When will you ever learn to be considerate of other people? There are 15 other people on this range, you know.
8. You don't read the chapter and then you expect to understand what's going on in the group. What's wrong with this picture?
9. This group is too intense. I expected to have time to hang out with volunteers here.
10. Why don't you clean up after yourself instead of leaving a mess for others?
